Dear Mr. Fanjul:

Subject: TSO Authorization

This is in reply to your letter of October 18, 2006 requesting Technical Standard Order (TSO) authorization for your Life Preserver. The statement of conformance to TSO-C13f and the submitted data are accepted. Effective this date, you are authorized to identify the following Life Preserver with the marking requirements defined in 14 CFR § 21.607(d) and in TSO-C13f.

Part Number:	Description:
S-71850-()	Life Preserver (Model AV-200)

Your Quality Control System, as defined in your Quality and Procedures Manual, Rev. H, dated December 22, 2005 is considered satisfactory for production of this article at your 1325 East State Street, P.O. Box 1328, Trenton, NJ 08607-1328 facility.

As required by the TSO, the following statement must be furnished with each manufactured unit:

“The conditions and tests required for TSO approval of this article are minimum performance standards. It is the responsibility of those installing this article either on or within a specific type or class of aircraft to determine that the aircraft installation conditions are within TSO standards. TSO articles must have separate approval for installation in an aircraft. The article may be installed only if performed under 14 CFR Part 43 or the applicable airworthiness requirements.”

Any design change to this TSO article must be forwarded to this office as outlined in 14 CFR § 21.611 with minor change submittal intervals not to exceed six months. Also, as recipient of this authorization, you are required to report any failure, malfunction, or defect relating to this authorization in accordance with the provisions of 14 CFR § 21.3.

This authorization is not transferable to another person and is effective until surrendered, withdrawn, or otherwise terminated by the Administrator.

Please note that technical data retained by the FAA may be subject to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests. As such, this office will notify you of all such requests pertaining to your data and afford you the opportunity to defend the release of the data.

If you have any questions regarding this authorization, contact Mr. Leung Lee at 516-228-7309.

Sincerely,

Anthony Socias
Manager, New York Aircraft Certification Office
